

Dear Andrea,

More Than a Century of Tradition Continues

When you run a company like R.K Rubber, which has been a going concern since William McKinley was president, you cant help but feel proud. For starters, theres the sheer longevity factor, which stems from a simple fact: You only stay in business for more than 114 years by being very good at what you do.

Along the way, through word-of-mouth referrals, we established a reputation that will strive mightily to keep unsullied. And last but not least, we've built a team with more than 150 years of combined experience guys who don't flinch when asked to find innovative, unique solutions to customer problems. In short, you wont here the words We cant do that very often in our shop. And we aim to keep it that way for another century.
