

National Rubber Gasket Day

RK RUBBER
CUSTOM PARTS FABRICATOR

Today is "Gasket Day" at RK RUBBER. And we don't even need a proclamation, official National Day (or Month) to mark that around here. I do find special "daily holidays" to be amusing- when not annoying! Take for example July 2nd - "I Forgot Day" (really) or July 5th- "Work-a-holics Day"... I've been accused of making that one a weekly event.

July is marked with many great days to celebrate. No one will argue with my two personal favorites: July 4th - Independence Day and July 14th - "National Nude Day."

Special rubber days are a little harder to find. There is January 13th - "National Rubber Ducky Day" and April 15th - "National Rubber Eraser Day." Beyond those, you'll just have to see RK RUBBER where EVERY DAY is a rubber day!
