We are "family" ...

Oh it's a fact, "you can pick your friends but not your family." And in this case, I also get to pick my employees. Crazy thing is— I've surrounded myself with all of the above! My team, my crew, and my staff may as well all be family... and trust me when I say, "that's a good thing."

Technically, there are a bunch of family members working here; and they all earn it, every day. It's just that over time, the whole RK group becomes one cohesive team and family. We finish each other's sentences and pretty much know each other's routines. Most importantly, we have each other's back; which means we put work first.

Our customers know it and depend on it. That's RK's reputation... wait, make that me and my families reputation!

Speaking of family, and as proud grandpa, I'd like to show off a couple of new employees that should be starting on the shop floor next month. (Ha!)

My grandkids already have a lock on "Employee of the Year." 🤔🤔🤔🤔
