

Joy in a job well done.

'Tis the season of joy; and it came upon us fast. Seems I'm just getting done with turkey leftovers and I'm already late for decking the halls. Seasons and years can move fast... I have to remind myself to stop and "smell the pine needles" (or something like that). It's then that I realize that there is joy all around. Joy in family, friends and co-workers. Joy in client relationships; new and treasured long ones. And joy in a job well done.

We here at RK RUBBER embrace all those joys and are wishing you and yours all that this season offers.
